

2022 Artist Guide & Rules

Background

Plein Air Grand Marais has been an annual tradition since 2008, when it was first organized by the Grand Marais Art Colony. In 2018, GMAC passed the torch to Outdoor Painters of Minnesota (OPM), which organizes the event in collaboration with our Competition exhibit host, Johnson Heritage Post Art Gallery (JHP). JHP is operated by the Cook County Historical Society (CCHS). Both OPM and CCHS are charitable nonprofits, and all proceeds of Plein Air Grand Marais are used to reinvest in the future of the event and the respective missions of each organization.

Key Dates / Times / Locations

- Headquarters for all artists' activities is at the Rec Hall at Grand Marais Municipal Campground. The Rec Hall is a midnight blue painted building with its own parking lot across the drive from the Campground office building. We'll hang a banner visible from the drive into the Campground from Highway 61.

- Check-In for all registered artists: 9am-3pm Friday through Wednesday of Competition Week at the Rec Hall.

- All registered artists receive a neck wallet, daily schedule postcards, maps, and may choose from a selection of art supplies and promotional items from our sponsors.
- Set Out Screen Printing will screen-print the PAGM logo in black or white ink on a t-shirt, sweatshirt or apron that you provide. Cost: $20 cash. OPM receives half as a donation to help support our event. A time window for printing will be messaged to registered artists.
- Daily Paint-Outs will be scheduled, where all registered painters may paint together and the public is invited to watch for them.
- Artist Social gatherings will be scheduled, where all registered painters are invited.
- Artists register online for Mini-Workshops scheduled Saturday through Wednesday of Competition Week. Each Mini-Workshop lasts about 3 hours and costs $50. Visit <https://www.outdoorpaintersofminnesota.org/pagm-mini-workshops.html>
- No Panel Stamping: Instead, exhibiting Artists are required to submit an in situ photo of each painting on location where painted, in Cook County. Example:

A link to the Painting Submission Form will be sent to all registered artists and published on our web site when painting opens on August 15, 2022.

- Open Class Reception & Exhibit: 5-7pm, Wednesday at Harbor Park across from Johnson Heritage Post Art Gallery in Grand Marais. Paintings will be displayed on tabletop easels (the artist's or OPM's).
- Competition Exhibit Preview, 11:00am – 12:00pm, Thursday at Harbor Park across from JHP. Competition Artists may display and sell paintings off-easel. All sales must go through JHP and are subject to 30% gallery commission.
- Birnie Quick Paint, open to all registered artists, 3:30–5:00pm, Thursday at Artists Point. Check in at the East Bay picnic table starting at 2:45pm to receive a number to display for judging afterward on the rocks. First place receives the Birnie Quick Award, with additional “Art on the Rocks” awards for paintings of exceptional merit.
- Hootenanny, 7–10pm, Thursday at the harbor picnic shelter/pavilion at Grand Marais Municipal Campground. Bring an instrument or sing along to join our ad-hoc band “The Plain Errors.” In case of rain, we might end up inside at Sydney’s on Broadway near Artists Point instead.

- Competition Paintings may be submitted at JHP during open hours (10am-4pm) during Competition Week. Paintings must be properly wired and ready to hang by 11:00am on Friday. NEW THIS YEAR: Digital painting submission forms with painting label information and photos MUST be submitted no later than Thursday at 7:00pm.
- Final Reception and Awards: Doors open for VIP sponsors and registered artists starting at 4pm. VIP tickets are offered to sponsors and donors who contribute $20 or more to either CCHS or OPM to support the event. The Awards Reception is open to the public starting at 5:00pm. Awards will be announced and livestreamed on OPM’s Facebook page starting at 6:00pm.
- A Plein Air Painting Workshop with juror Krystal Brown is offered Saturday and Sunday, September 17-18 at the Grand Marais Art Colony: “Game-Changing Plein Air.” Cost is $300. Call (218) 387-2737 to register.

Exhibit Rules for All Registered Artists (Open Class + Competition)

- Plein Air Grand Marais includes two categories of competitive exhibits: Open Class and Competition. All registered artists in either category pay a nonrefundable $45 entry fee.
- All exhibited paintings must be completed on location *en plein air in Cook County, Minnesota from August 15, 2022 to September 16, 2022.
- Paintings must be entirely the artist’s own original, independent work. Photos may not be used as a reference at any stage of painting completion. Paintings completed or worked on in Mini-Workshops are not eligible for any exhibit or awards.
- Commission on all painting sales is 30% for paintings created for PAGM or during Competition Week, including off-the-easel and Open Class sales. Competition painting sales are handled by JHP. Open Class sales are handled by the artist, who is responsible for making a donation to OPM for 30% of the painting’s purchase price. Artists who do not follow protocol may be barred in the future from PAGM.
 - Off-the-Easel Sales by Competition Artists: Give your buyer your name, painting title and price for presentation to the cashier at JHP during open hours (10-4). Postcards with exhibit information and space to write painting or contact info are provided to participating artists to offer visitors and painting buyers.
 - Sales by Open Class Artists: You may handle the sale yourself, and then make a donation of 30% of purchase price to OPM using the Donate Now button on our web site.

Main Competition Rules

- Each Competition Artist may submit 4 paintings in the Competition Exhibit at JHP and up to 2 paintings in reserve, to be hung for sale as Competition paintings are sold.
- The Competition Juror may give only one award per artist.
- To be eligible for the Historical Place Award, paintings must feature one of Historic Cook County's five sites: The Lighthouse Keepers House and History Museum, Johnson Heritage Post Art Gallery, the 1930's Fishhouse Replica and tug boat Nee-Gee, Bally's Blacksmith Shop, or the St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church. Only this prize, awarded by Historic Cook County, and the Artists' Choice prize awarded by registered artists at the final reception, can be combined with Competition Juror prizes.
- Due to limited exhibit space, Competition paintings must not be larger than 16x20 not including frame, no wider than 28" framed, and no taller than 24" framed. Please do not submit more than two maximum-sized paintings: due to variable wall space and lengths of hanging rods, adequate space for large paintings cannot be assured. Standard sizes from 9x12 to 14x18 are ideal for this event.
- Each Competition Artist will be assigned a single vertical rod in JHP to display 4 paintings in the Competition Exhibit. Two additional reserve paintings may be submitted, which are not eligible for prizes but may be displayed for sale as space becomes available.
- To be eligible for Night Paint award, nocturnes must be painted on location after sunset. We traditionally have a nocturnal paint-out during Competition Week, but nocturnes may be completed any time during the painting period, August 15 to September 16.
- Competition paintings must be submitted electronically NO LATER THAN 7:00PM ON THURSDAY. A mobile-friendly submission form prompts you for artist and painting information, a photo of each painting for the online gallery, and an in-situ photo for each painting. In-situ photos are required in lieu of panel stamping and will be shared in a slideshow in the gallery and on OPM's web site. An iPad will be set up in JHP for artists to use for submitting painting label info in case of difficulty with mobile phone internet access. If you can't use the submission form for any reason, required painting images (in situ and painting images) may be emailed to the organizer at: events@outdoorpaintersofminnesota.org.
- The Quick Paint lasts 90 minutes from 3:30–5:00pm on Thursday of Competition Week. Painters may paint on and around Artists' Point. Paintings are displayed immediately afterward on the rocks at East Bay. The Open Class and Competition jurors will select the winners and award prizes at 5:30pm.
- The Competition Exhibit is displayed from September 16 to October 9, 2022. All Competition Artists must inform JHP of painting retrieval plans when the exhibit ends: paintings can be picked up in person, shipped to the artist, or retrieved by a caravan of volunteers. All paintings must leave the gallery on Sunday at 4pm or Monday at 11am,

October 9-10. Volunteers who help transport paintings back to pickup locations are invited to stay at Sugarloaf Cabins in Schroeder (exact dates to be determined). Contact Allison Eklund, Events Director for details.

Open Class Rules

- Open Class artists may submit one painting to be juried by a pop-up exhibit and reception at Harbor Park on Wednesday, September 14 from 5–7pm. The Rec Hall building at Grand Marais Campground used as Artist Headquarters can be used in case of rain. Bring your painting, framed or otherwise display-ready between 4:30-5:00pm for placement on a tabletop easel provided by OPM (or your own) to be placed on picnic tables or concrete benches. The Best in Show award winner of the Open Class is invited to participate in the Competition Class the following year as an Invitational Artist.
- Paintings may be offered for sale at the Open Class exhibit. Sales are handled by the artist, who is responsible for paying 30% of the purchase price to OPM. All painting sales during the reception or in Grand Marais during the event are subject to commission.
- The Open Class exhibit is a pop-up show: Artists take unsold paintings home with them at the end of the reception.
- Open Class artists may participate in the Quick Paint on Thursday. The Quick Paint is a timed, 90-minute event with a horn announcing when to start and stop. All registered painters sign up for the Quick Paint at the East Bay picnic table near the paved parking lot at Artist Point. Participating artists receive a number on a 3x5 card on a popsicle stick to tape onto the back of the painting panel or easel facing outward so the juror can identify it. After the “stop” horn blows, all painters bring their paintings for display, jurying and awards, and photo-op to the rocks on the shore of East Bay.

Frequently Asked Questions

- I am arriving late; can I still participate? If you have paid your registration fee, you may participate in your category of the event subject to deadlines and requirements for turning in paintings. The deadline to turn in Open Class paintings is 4-5pm at the reception on Wednesday, and the deadline to turn in Competition paintings is 7pm on Thursday for online submission forms and 8-11am on Friday for the actual paintings to be displayed at Johnson Heritage Post Art Gallery. If you cannot participate in your exhibit, please let us know so we can avoid extra work creating name tags and labels. If you’re a Competition painter and can’t come after all, please let us know as soon as possible because we might have a waiting list. Email allison@outdoorpaintersofminnesota.org with questions or to report a change in your registration or participation.
- Can I change my Mini-Workshop registration? Registrations may be changed by canceling a registration and registering for a different one, before the cancellation deadline of Friday, September 9. Contact allison@outdoorpaintersofminnesota.org about any change in workshop registration. Please note that PayPal refunds are subject to $5 fee.

- Do I have to frame my paintings? All Competition paintings exhibited must be finished for gallery display and securely wired for hanging. Gallery-wrap paintings are acceptable if sides are finished and the painting is securely wired for hanging. Open Class paintings will be displayed on tabletop easels, but paintings still should be framed or finished for formal display and ready for wall hanging in case the painting is sold.
- How are Competition Paintings displayed? Each Competition artist is assigned a hanging rod in JHP that fits 4 paintings hung vertically using hanging wire securely fastened to each painting by the artist. Artists are arranged alphabetically by last name, starting at a different location in the gallery each year. Artists are not allowed to hang their own paintings, but at dropoff time must leave them against the wall at their rod where gallery staff will hang them.
